

Reading with understanding is essential if we are to live out what we read. The Bible's goal is not simply to give us knowledge but instead to transform how we live (James 1:22) This is not possible if we do not first understand what is going on in the text, what it means, or what is being said. Secondly, when we understand the Scriptures, we are reading we are changed by them and that gives us incentive to continue and read more. All of us need self-discipline when it comes to Bible reading. Much vies for our time and attention today.

With this 5 Day Bible Reading Schedule you only need to read one chapter a day to complete the entire New Testament this year. If you add to that reading about four to five chapters a day in the Old Testament you can complete the entire Bible in a year. Reading all those chapters will require the self-discipline to put aside other matters and read God's word. When we see in our own lives the work of God through His word we are encouraged to keep it up and to do even more. In short, nothing succeeds like success, and when you have had success reading the Bible because you are understanding it you will want to read more.

Always do the readings in the order given on the Schedule. This can be a significant year of spiritual growth for you if you will dedicate yourself to the reading of the Bible. But, you'll have to persevere and even overcome discouragement. Don't quit if you fall behind or even miss a week or two. Just pick right back up where the schedule is and start again. The most important decision you can make about Bible study is the one you can make right now: I will do this. I will not quit, I will not give up. I'm in it for the duration. Make that determination, set your heart, and let's go forward to a great year of reading and understanding the Bible!

May the Lord bless all our efforts to read, understand, and live His word.

This reading plan is in chronological order (even the Psalms have been placed chronologically when possible) reading chronologically aids understanding of the Bible story. Always do the reading in the order it appears on the schedule. So, for example, if a reading from Chronicles appears before Kings in that day's reading, read from Chronicles first and then check off each day's reading from the reading plan.

God's blessings rest with those who will read, understand, and live by His Word. May this guide help you to that noble end.

"Thy word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path" (Psalms 119:105).
